

A strong, dual-brand approach.

The brand you know as Millborn Seeds is focusing on serving our customers and their needs even better through a new, two-brand strategy launching in the fall of 2023 - Millborn and Renovo Seed.

Renew. Revive. Repeat.

Practical solutions for forage, cover crop, conservation, and restoration seed needs.

Prebuilt, proven-to-work seed mixes tailored to the specific goals of farmers, ranchers, and landowners.

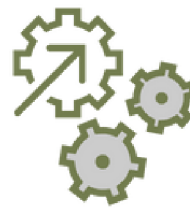

Extremely skilled, problem-solving professionals with a passion for sharing knowledge.

Tailored, profitable solutions for even the most challenging situations.

Enriching Land & Lives.

Efficient production through vertical integration, a simplified supply chain and unmatched logistics and distribution.

1,200+ products available for custom blending and packaging for private label and contractor customers.

This two-brand strategy is focused solely our customers, no matter their needs. Enriching land and lives is our sole focus and both Millborn and Renovo Seed will strive to do that for generations to come.
